

Alden Ewell Free Library Association Newsletter February 2019

Welcome to the Alden Ewell Free Library Association's February 2019 newsletter!

This spring promises to be a busy one for the Library. Our Used Book Sale will start on Saturday, February 16 and continue through the end of the month; as always, it will be a $5 bag sale—use ours, or bring your own. Volunteers are still needed; check the events note for more information. Keep an eye on your inbox, because Association meeting invites will be coming soon. Please plan to attend to vote on the re-chartering resolution—a vote to re-charter is a vote for our Library's future!

There's still time to enter our February raffle—a basket of Valentine goodies—just take out three or more items for a chance to win. Our January raffle of a portable air compressor/LED light, windshield de-icer, and automobile glass cleaner had 24 entries.

The library will be closed February 18 for Presidents' Day.

As always, thank you for reading our newsletter; if you wish to unsubscribe, directions can be found at the bottom of the page.
