

ERIE CANAL ON TOUR

The Erie Canal comes to life through objects! The Erie Canal Traveling Museum Teaching Artist will bring artifacts from the mid-1800s through the turn of the century, all items used on or around the Canal for domestic chores, farming and husbandry, hunting and fishing, shipping and hauling, and daily living. Come explore the objects and learn about life along the Canal in its early years. Ages 7—14.

Tuesday, September 10 • 6 PM

Alden Ewell Free Library

13280 Broadway, Alden • 937-7082

This program is free and open to the public. Registration is required.

This program is made possible through a grant from the New York State Regional Economic Council, NYS Council on the Arts, Governor Andrew M. Cuomo, and the New York State Legislature.