

ALDEN EWELL FREE LIBRARY
COMMUNITY LIBRARY MEETING ROOMS
RULES FOR USE

Use of the Taylor Meeting Room (meeting room) is primarily for programs conducted or sponsored by the Alden Ewell Free Library. Secondly it may be used as a host location for community informational services and for programs or meetings for organizations engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual, or charitable activities of interest and/or benefit to the community. These events must be nonpartisan and nonsectarian. The meeting room is not to be used by profit-making organizations or for partisan political activities or private events. All meetings must be open to the public.

Programs which are planned by the Library take precedence over meetings of outside groups. The Library reserves the right to preempt the use of meeting space for Library purposes upon two (2) weeks' notice to the organization which had requested that space.

As long as meetings do not conflict with one another, there is no objection to regular meetings of the same group; however, in fairness to other groups in the community, reservations are taken not more than three (3) months in advance.

No admission fee or required donation may be charged. A sponsor of a meeting or program may request a fee from participants only to the extent that such fee covers the cost of materials furnished to participants. Such charges should not be construed as an admission fee, and attendance may not be limited to those individuals who pay the fee. No portion of any fee shall accrue to the benefit of an organization or individual.

APPLICATION: Formal application for the use of any meeting room is made with the Board of Trustees. An individual responsible for the meeting must complete and sign an application form. Forms are available from Library staff and on the Library website (<https://www.buffalolib.org/content/library-locations/library-meeting-rooms>). Reconfirmation of the meeting must be made with the Library Manager/Director at least two weeks prior to the meeting. Cancellations or change of meeting dates must be cleared with the Library Manager/Director.
